

West Branch of the Sunrise River

Monitoring Years: 2008

Current Impairments: Fish bioassessments, turbidity, and pH

Interesting Facts about the West Branch of the Sunrise River:

- Collects water from Typo and Martin Lakes
- Typo and Martin Lakes are in the process of a TMDL Study
- Transparency tube readings are generally low (brown and green water)
- Water does not move quickly at this location